

SAFETY CERTIFICATION GUIDELINES: OZARK LEATHER COMPANY

In addition to our commitment to provide the highest possible quality products, Ozark Leather Company has also been committed to providing completely safe products to our customers. That is why Ozark Leather Company wanted to furnish an update to you concerning recent legislation that is directed towards increased safety in child-oriented products.

Ozark Leather Company has been buying products that meet and exceed all international safety requirements for years. Ozark Leather Company has been a leader in meeting these safety requirements as well as promoting effective environmental policies relating to the industry.

As you would have anticipated, all orders now being placed by Ozark Leather Company will fully comply with even the most stringent safety requirements. No product will be shipped to or outside the United States that has not passed through independent third party testing safety requirements.

Ozark Leather Company will continue to be very concerned about the safety of our products. If further changes or enhancements to safety standards are made, we will post these on our website.

We greatly appreciate your business and your trust in Ozark Leather Company.

*In effect February 10, 2009---as per the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act.